PAUOA WATER IS PUSHED THROUGH IN LOWER HOUSE

Votes Mustered for the Nineteen Measure Despite Strong Arguments.

By a close drawing of lines the Pauca water scheme was put through the House yesterday. The vote on the passage of the bill was nineteen to eight, three members being absent. The Oahn members voted five against and seven for the measure, but eliminating the three out of the city men the majority was against it, of the men whose homes and constituencies are in Honolulu proper. The bill was rushed to the Governor, so that the House will have n chance to vote on it again if it fails of executive approval.

The Torrens land bill went through with a large majority, though there was a time when it looked to be in trouble. There was a feeling on the part of some of the men, who schemed to make it the club to force an extension of the session, to table the bill, and thus have an argument that there were important matters which had to be considered. But the friends of the measure got their votes together and won out, the others falling into line. Many measures were advanced, the House working hard for a time.

The Senate finished up two long appropriation bills yesterday and worked hard for about seven hours in order to do it. The loan bill passed second reading in the morning, with but few changes. Some of the items were reduced but the bill as passed exceeds the constitutional limit which the government may borrow within the next two years.

In the afternoon the bill appropriating money for current expenses was considered and the session extended into the night, when the bill passed second reading. It will pass finally in the Senate on Saturday. There was some little excitement over the members, but finally was forced through.

The current expense bill brought out some lively discussions and it passed many new features. The bill itself carried appropriations for but six months, but these were all changed to cover the entire biennial period. At the end was inserted a section which stops the payment of all money by the Territorial officers where the work comes within the jurisdiction of the counties, under the county and he asked where was the 8,000,000 bill, after January 1, 1904. An effort was made by Senator Brown to make the appropriations payable only pro rata, to stop "pet schemes" of the government he said, and also to allow his pet Pauca water scheme to get through. There was unanimous opposition to this however, as the other Senators said the provision would prevent. the making of any contracts by the Territory. This may be remedied by an amendment on third reading to require all counties to take over the contracts made by the Territory.

The Senate also increased the appropriation for St. Louis fair to $50,000 with an additional $15,000 for advertising purposes. The items for the Nuuanu Valley reservoir were cut in half, the item for the visit of the band to the other islands was stricken out, as was also the item for a Molokai steamer.

COUNTY ACT NOW IN THE HANDS OF THE GOVERNOR

Passes the House With Only One Negative Vote, That of Kupihea.

(From Wednesday's daily.)

County bill talk has passed into the realm of guesses as to what is to be the result of the Governor's consideration of the bill, for it has passed every stage of the legislative program. Before the final vote in the House yesterday a copy of the measure carefully type. written, was laid on the desk of the Speaker for signature in the event of its passing and the technicalities are all completed.

There was one vote against the bill in the lower house yesterday when the measure was put through. That vote was cast by the unreconstructed Home Ruler Kupihea, who, game to the end, would not lend his voice or vote to a measure which carried in it no general provisions, which he declares are necessary. There were three members whose votes were not cast, one, Greenwell, having been called to his Kona home by the news of the illness of his sister; while Oili is ill, and Jaeger was absent. All the others put their votes in favor of the measure and the members gathered in the rear, and cheered for the passage of the measure.

There is growing question as to the passage of the Long city and county act. It is recognized that it is out of tune with the county, bill and general city bill, which have both passed. There is some talk that the Long bill will be amended, even though it will mean the taking out of it of the special touches which have been imparted, the taking out of the provisions for county school and health bureaus, and in general the writing down of the measure to the basis of the general legislation. The Senate has been considering the matter at some length, and the outcome is still a question.

A long list of bills was taken up by the House during its sessions, but the docket was not cleared, owing to the fact that the members wanted to have an evening off to celebrate the passage of the county law, and so did not hold a night session.

The Senate went through the order of the day in a hurry yesterday and adjourned before three o'clock. In the morning notice was received from the House of the passage of the general municipal bill which in the opinion of a majority of the Senators obviates the necessity for the passage of the Long bill, granting a special charter | to Honolulu.

The Panoa water bill came back with a number of amendments and it will probably pass today. The Senate also passed the militia bill, and several other minor bills on third reading.

Some surprise was caused by a motion to take the Winston railroad franchise from the table, which prevailed. It is reported that the company is willing to accept the Senate bill with a few

WHAT IS PAIN BALM? Chamberlain's Pain Baim is a liniment, and while adapted to all the ordinary uses of a liniment, has qualities which distinguish it from other remedies of this class. Pain Balm is especially beneficial for theumatism. Thouthis remedy has effected a cure when the sufferer had previously tried the best medical service without securing relief. Pain Balm is positively guaranteed to give relief in the most severe

Bales and Walton, two of the Camp McKinley soldiers who are under indictment for burglarizing the Tantalus home of Chief Justice Frear, departed on the China for San Francisco yesterday, under military guard. They left without the consent of the civil authorities though it is expected that they will be court martialed for their offense in San Francisco. Carlton, the third of the trio under indictment, left Honolulu several weeks ago, but with the consent of the civil authorities, he agreeing to return for trial,

The departure of Bales and Walton has several peculiar features. Since the arrest of the three soldiers much influence has been brought to bear to secure their release. Cariton is the son of the clerk of the New York Supreme Court and the judges of that court with United States Senators and Representatives have been using their influence in the matter. A few weeks ago Majo: McClellan, commandant at Camp McKinley, requested Attorney General Andrews to secure their discharge by the court, but Mr. Andrews would not consent to this disposition.

> Mr. Andrews was unaware yesterday until told by an Advertiser reporter that the two men had left the jurisdiction of the court. He replied that his understanding had been that the men were to be produced for trial at the opening of the term. They had been turned over to the military authorities as an act of courtesy to be dealt with by them, but no agreement had been made as to the dismissal of the burglary charges, though this was under consideration.

The cases had not been dismissed as yet and he was at a loss to account for their departure from the country.

Judge De Boit said also that the cases had not been dismissed and their reease upon their own recognizance had been with the understanding that they were to be produced upon the opening of the term.

Chief Justice Frear states that he had received many letters from influential men in the States in regard to the matter, but that he had not acted upon these. He said that he had agreed to make no objection if the Attorney General wished to withdraw the charge provided that several conditions were observed. One of these was that the men confess their part in the crime, and as to whether they had broken into his house on previous occasions. Another condition was that they leave the sands of cases can be cited in which islands in the event of their release, and never to return. SENATE APPROVES PAUOA AND PAHOA WATER SCHEMES the First Named After Passes Fight and Advances the Other.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

After spending an hour upon the reading and amending of the Standard Telephone franchise bill yesterday, the House tabled the measure, its friends deciding to take the chance of putting through the Senate bill, rather than sending to the Senate the emasculated measure which the House had left

The most pronounced change in the bill was the cutting out of the section making it possible for the company to own stocks of other companies. It was argued that this would mean that the corporation would in time buy into the various corporations in the same business on the other islands and thus That while transacting said business make a trust, which it, was explained would be contrary to the there wrongfully accused by said S. There was put into the bill, as well, an amendment making it necessary for the company to file yearly state ments with the Government, and then pay 2 1-2 per cent of the All three of the men entered pleas of gross income to the Territory.

The House spent much of the day on the passage of sevhave such influential friends, furnished eral measures, advancing the Torrens Land bill, and as well making it possible for the docket to be cleared with a hard day's work. But there was too much illness to allow that last evening, so that the House did not work after dinner.

> The Senate talked water all afternoon yesterday, and both of the water schemes went through by a big majority, though after heated discussion. There was no work in the morning, adjournment being taken to prepare the County Bill for the governor's signature. The engrossed bill reached Governor Dole-about two o'clock in the afternoon, and he will consider it today. No action is expected for several days, however. One Senator was of the opinion that the Governor would not sign it, because of objections regarding powers conferred upon counties. Senator Achi and Senator Cecil Brown, in argument on other matters, talked as if the signature of the Governor would be forthcoming in short order,

> The Pahoa water scheme passed second reading on a favorable report from the committee. Both McCandless and Achi were opposed to it, but it went through with a rush. The Pauoa scheme required more argument and there was some sharp discussion. Paris, McCandless and Achi were the only ones to vote against it, though several important amendments were added to the bill, and the House will hardly recognize its own measure.

IN THE HOUSE.

Business in the House began with the reading of a list of unpaid bills from the Department of Public Works, amounting to $2,717.28. The communication was referred to the Committee on Public Expenditures.

The Senate sent back the bill for two pay days a month, with slight amendment, confining its operations to road employes and the House concurred in

SENATE BILLS PASSED.

The Senate announced the passage of certain laws, as follows, they also being taken up and passed first reading in the House: To amend the act relating to building permits; to reorganize the militia; for the protection of life and property against explosives: to provide for a digest of the Hawailan Supreme Court reports: to amend the act reorganizing the Judiciary Department, providing for the enforcement of decrees in equity; relating to negotiable instruments. Chinese Arrested Counterfeiting Sues Damon.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Hu Yong, one of the Chinese arrested a few months ago on the charge of counterfeiting, yesterday brought suit against Bishop & Co. for $2500 for damages by reason of his false arrest and imprisonment.

In September last two Chinese were arrested by High Sheriff Brown on a charge of attempting to pass counterfeit coin at Bishop's bank. They were turned over to the Federal authorities and the men released on bail, pending the submission of the alleged counterfelt quarters and half dollars for the examination of experts at San Francisco. A few weeks later the money was returned with the information that it was good American coin but of an old issue which was being called in. Thereupon the Chinese were released on motion of United States Attorney Breckons.

The complaint of Hu Yong alleges "That on the 24th day of September, 1902, said plaintiff visited the banking house of said Bishop & Co. for the purpose of transacting business thereat, to wit, the depositing of money therein and the purchase of a bill of exchange. as aforesaid said plaintiff was then and Damon, one of the defendants herein, of attempting to pass upon the said bank counterfelt money of the United States of America.

HOLDS UP

As a Rule the City Merchants Speak Hopefully.

There is some slight tendency on the pert of merchants in Honolulu in certain lines to complain that trade is not as brisk as it should be at this time of the year, but on the whole there does not seem to be any good cause for complaint. The spring trade has not perhaps opened as lively as it should in all lines, but business has nevertheless held its own since the opening of the year. Notably, there has been an increase in the tonnage of the harbor, save in the month of March, when the number of ships coming into the port fell off because of light winds in southern latitudes. That applies to both Australia and the Horn trade. In January and February there were large numbers of ships entered and cleared from the port. Moreover, the sugar fleet, the around the world fleet, has been late this year. The ships that load sugar for New York in Honolulu, go thence to Hongkong or Hlogo or Shanghai, and it takes them a little more than a year to make the round, and so they continue to come later and later by a month or two until at last they overlap and come in earlier.

"But tonnage has held up remarkably well," said B. Griggs Holt, manager for McCabe, Hamilton & Renny, yesterday, "and I think we may look for a pretty good fleet within the next ten days."

"I find a decided increase in business," said George W. Smith, of Benson, Smith & Co. "And there is every prospect of an improved financial condition in Honolulu within the next eight months. Of course we must all pull together to bring this about, but it can be brought about. I know that our business has increased materially within the past year, and good reports come to us from the other islands.'

"We cannot complain of the business outlook," said Mr. Lewis, of Lewis petition for road improvements to the brothers. "We are always busy duramount to $44,600, suggested that it be ing the first part of the week. But, as a matter of fact, there has been an increase since the first of the year. We would be the last place to feel a depression, if depression really existed. Maybe people are not buying so many luxuries. But we have no complaint. Our trade has not fallen off. There has been a slight increase, if anything."

"Why," said the manager of the merchandising department of Hackfeld & Co., "I think business is good. It may be a little dull in Honolulu, for the present, but certainly there has been an increase in trade with the other islands. Do you not find it so among the other merchants?"

A number of men in various lines of trade were seen, and on the whole the tale was the same among them. Some complained that times were dull with them, some were inclined to gauge the business condition by the conditions bound to exist on a rainy day, when people cannot get abroad to buy, one or two extreme pessimists thought

Although it is at the extreme west, Hawaii is not alone in the western United States in attempting to attract the favorable notice of home seekers. The communities of the mainland west work harmoniously and more as a whole toward this end, however, recognizing that with new men come new methods-and that new methods are sometimes better for a land than the old. For there are other merits besides age. Also, the communities of the mainland west have powerful aids to their upbuilding in the great transcontinental railways and the officers of them, each recognizing that in bringing new people to the country and inducing their settlement he is building future trade for his particular line, and so making his place more secure by making his own services more valuable to the company he represents. One of these railway officials, a general passenger agent | quiring that mesters and men of Amerof one of the northern railways, speaking at a dinner in a great Oregon city not very long ago, used these words: "If the present residents of Oregon will look after the newcomer a bit and give some evidence of a desire to have him remain, it will go a long way toward making the immigrant stay with involved in the Aylett bill been con-A pleasant word and a friendly greeting to the stranger is worth much to him and costs the giver little. Now, what is good advice to Oregon is good advice to people in these isiands. Nobody will dispute the open and of the islands generally. The Hawaiians, and the white people who have come after them, have always been noted for their hospitality. No man has ever needed to go without food and a hed, anywhere on the islands, though there are many places where there are no hotels and where there never have been hotels. But more is meant, in this, than hospitality to the stranger. There is a tendency on the part of the people here, quickly perceived by the stranger, to look upon the newcomer, not as a man who has lost caste-for the new comer has no caste-but as a man who must prove himself by the single test of long residence before he is accepted at anything like full value. We all honor the pioneers, of course The men who open a country are men who have stern stuff in them. They must have, or they would not adventure into strange lands. But for that very reason they and their descendants ! should accord a welcome, and something of more honorable status than is the rule to strangers that adventure that the stranger has ideas. That is of new blood, and if we are to build up a state here after the American manner there must be many changes in conditions that only the stranger in shown however when one takes it in the land can bring about-the stranger with new ideas, and the courage to put them into practice. Perhaps such a stranger would stay and overcome his handicap of newness, in time, if he had the right stuff in him, but he would be very much more apt to stay, and to do his best if he were made to feel that his new neighbors were glad to of alien labor of any character, on pubhave him and did not sneer at him for lie works in the state. This was passed the fact that he had not cared to be not for the purpose of affecting Orienborn in the land. No man, however brave, is less courageous for a friendly pat on the back-and every man is the better for it in all those qualities in him which make for good. Let us make the stranger feel, not only that our homes are open to him as guest, as all island homes are to the stranger who comes well recommended, but that our land is open to him to make his home in, that our hearts are open to him as a fellow man, that if he will become one of us we will be glad to let him, in fact as well as in name. All honor to the kamasina; but honor in good measure, too, to the man who has not chosen to come until he can come equipped with ideas that will build up the common home of both.

Although Europe accounted Spain a naval match for this country when the war of 1898 broke out, the Americans sunk or captured every Spanish vessel which came out to fight. Hawaii, for example, can no more require that a hackman shall speak English or Hawaiian than that a saloon-keeper, a merchant, a huckster or any one else working under a local license, shall do so. If a Portuguese or a Japanese, who speaks his mother tongue only is driving a hack in Honolulu he cannot be cut off from this means of livelihood by the provisions of the Aylett bill. He will find ample means of redress when it comes to local interference with his vested rights to earn his living without first jearning a new language. Representative Harris brought out one of the inconsistencies of the act, at times and fail of their plain civic against Kodera, Kozai and Ogl, the which received the approval of the majority of the members of the House, bearing upon the employment of citizen labor on public contracts, when he asked if any one thought that any into the land now. The ineffectuality of the measure is connection with the recent decision of the court of appeal of New York, on a case which would be entirely similar to any that might be brought under the enactment just made. AMERICANIZE THE LAND.

The way to become American is to become American. It is one of the recognized weak points in the economic system of the Territory of Hawaii that there is not here, as there is on the mainland of the United States, any strong, prosperous middle class forming the bone and sinew of the land. There is, in effect, no farming community. It is the farming communities, in America, that form the political corrective, the balance wheel that holds the republic from swinging into the perils of oligarchy, on one side, into the perils of anarchy on the other. If the people of the cities ruled America, the land would become either a sink of nameless corruption or its institutions would sink into the red sea of anarchy, and either destiny would be achieved with alarming suddenness. A glance at the civic conditions on the mainland shows why this is so, and must be so. The electorate in the cities is not an honest electorate, although it may try to be. It cannot be honest against the temptations of corrupt politicians on the one hand and the temptations of demagogues miscalled reformers on the other who fight blindly, blind leaders of the blind, against the existence of conditions they feel to be wrong but the reason for whose being they cannot comprehend and the remedies for whose evils they would not know how to apply, even if they held the proper curative agents.

Nobody, in America, is ever surprised at the exposures of corruption made in the government of great cities. Citizens are so little surprised that those of them who deprecate such conditions Johnson, a member of the crew, most emphatically become distouraged duty in declining to take part in municipal politics—and then corruption runs madder than ever for the reason that the local check upon it is removed.

It is then that the strong conservative sense of the country districts comes into play, and the farmers awaken and save the nation. The farmers, to be sure, have their midsummer madness. They go off after strange gods, at odd times, and become populists and Bryanites and what not-but never cured of the venire of twenty-three. A enough of them go off at the same time to deliver the land to destruction. There is always a strong, sober-minded majority, with a stake in the country and a sufficient prosperity under existing conditions to make them refuse to accept quack political nostrums for economic evils that in the end will regulate themselves by the working of economic law.

And it is this middle class that is needed in this Territory, as it is needed in every American territory that hopes to become an American state. States grow from the soil, as everything does in the first instance, and the need is for men who know how to plant and sow and cultivate the soil. We can all reap when the crop is grown.

Mr. Bryan's regret that Gorman has been chosen to lead the Democrats in the Senate is somehow suggestive of old stories about those hunters who never bagged any game because of an invincible tendency to aim too high. If William Jennings had only gone in for the Senate himself, now, there is no telling what might have happened. The Senate is a sober body, and it has been called the best and most exclusive club in America. Club life does wonders for some men-and the Commoner has always been conceded to be a great statesman save for the double lack of conservatism and an inclination toward good society.

Of course it must now be conceded

THE TELEPHONE QUESTION.

[The Official and Commercial Record.]

The Merchants' Association and the Chamber of Commerce have both met, appointed committees, who in turn have appointed disinterested experts, who have examined the Mutual Telephone Company's system and crossexamined its manager. The experts have reported, the committees have reported and the associations have acted, in each case unanimously. The one decision arrived at is that the existing system is so bad that nothing but practical re-construction in large part, will remedy the situation. If this were all, the outlook would not be so bad; but the worst of it is that the new construction now going on, is of the same faulty character which has mainly caused the break down of the present system, viz: the use of porcelain knobs instead of glass insulators to support the wires. The government electric inspector, Mr. Hasson, and the three experts who acted for the mercantile organizations, all state that the use of the porcelain insulators is the main cause of the trouble. The Superintendent of the Company, Mr. Lehigh, alone maintains that they should be used. The reasons in their favor are that they are cheap and that they are small, allowing more wires on a cross arm than if the larger glass insulators are used. The reply is that both reasons are insufficlent in view of the fact that the porcelain insulator does not insulate in wet weather, while a glass one does.

The contention of the experts is borne out by the results, for it is common knowledge that telephones which work fairly well in dry weather, go out of commission with the first shower. The only possible explanation of this is, that the insulation being defective, the electric current leaks off from Japan.-Hawali Shinpo. the wire through each defective insulator, until none is left with which to transmit the message.

With such construction going on, and being justified by the Company, there is no improvement in sight, and the merchants have been reluctantly compelled to decide that the only available relief is a new system.

Having arrived at this decision, if the merchants think that the announcement of their opinion is going to settle the matter, they are very much mistaken. The existing company will naturally make a fight for its monopoly; it has strong supporters in the legislature and many unforeseen obstacles will have to be overcome.

If the merchants mean business, and want to make their desires effectual, they should appoint a strong commit-tee to press the subject, with power to act. If this is not done the whole agitation is liable to fizzle out like a wet fire cracker.

What is now needed is not talk, but a telephone system that will work. Nothing but action, and vigorous action, will produce this result.

KENTUCKY'S OFFICIAL MURDER AGAIN BEFORE THE COURT

He was seeking to obtain a pardon for the murder of one George Baker when, it is alleged, he was sent for to go to Frankfort where he would be given his pardon. Henry Youtsey, now serving a life sentence for complicity in the Goebel murder, recently made a confession in which he stated that Taylor then stated. "By Howard is the man. He has been in Frankfort after a pardon and could settle this Governorship contest by killing Goebel." Youtsey then says that the arrangement was made with Howard that he should secure his pardon and $1600 and another pardon afterwards for the murder of Goebel. Taylor was at that time Governor of Ken-Goebel was then killed, Howard, it being alleged, firing the shot that killed him from a room in the capitol building. AT KAWAIHAE Many Members Favor Forcing Governor's Hand for an Extra Session --- House Will Decide at Once Its Attitude on Matter.

(From Thursday's daily.)

What will be done this session in regard to the appropriation bills will be decided within the next two days. The bills in the Senate have been laid over for later consideration and the House committee has not yet reported. There will be a meeting this morning which will settle the disposition of the

Some of the members of the lower house have expressed the opinion that it would be unwise to make any decided move with the appropriation bills at this time. They say that the organic act is mandatory as to the calling of an extra session by the Governor, in the event of there being no appropriation bills, and they are of opinion that they should work along till the end of the sixty days, on regular matters, and then get the extra session and the $200 each.

Chairman Harris of the appropriations committee would not discuss the matter last evening, further than to say that he thought action should be had at once, so as to show that the legislature appreciated the action of Congress in making the term sixty days in length, and then if it proved impossible to complete the business, there might be action by the Governor, in the event he deemed the general legislation still hanging of sufficient importance to call the session into extra being, or to extend it. He said there would be some action by the appropriations committee, as he had the bills ready for reporting, and he thought the best thing was to put them in the possession of the House. Owing to the fact that it has taken two weeks to get a short report printed, there seems little chance that the measures will be printed and considered within the coming eleven days.

There is a mass of legislation on the docket of the House, though the outlook is that much of it will die a natural death if it is taken up for regular consideration. There will be hard work done in the next few days if it is decided to put over the appropriation measures, so that the extra session is necessary for their consideration, as the members will pile up as heavy a mass of legislation as possible, so that the Governor will have his hands full to read and pass upon the measures.

"We'll try it," answered Cecil Brown Achi said the Senate ought to appro-priate but $1,750,000, and let the House have $500,000.

Senator Paris said Achi believed everything for the islands other than Oahu was illegai.

"I just put in $250,000 for Oahu prison because I knew the Senators would vote it down," replied Achi; "if they didn't I wouldn't have proposed it," a statement which brought jeers from the island Senators.

Senator Achi moved that the item of $75,000 for Oahu insane asylum be reduced to $60,000. Passed as in the bill. Senator Achi moved the insertion of $17,500 for the Kalihi sewer, provided the Kamehameha Schools trustees pay $7,500. The item carried at $17,500.

On motion of Dickey, only items reerred to committees were considered. Senator Brown moved to strike out the items of $150,000 for the Nuuanu reservoir and $50,000 for a filtration plant. He said it was Cooper's "pet scheme" and he talked of nothing else. Recess until 2 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Consideration of the loan bill was resumed at the afternoon session. The report of the committee recom-

There was considerable discussion over the recommendation of the committee of an increase of the item for a road from Nahiku to Kailua from $5,000 to $50,000. Objection was made that this was not a new road, but the item carried at $50,000. if the cases were now left with the de-tem would save the government 24 per cent interest yearly on $150,000 The light question was also to be considered, and he argued that the Nuuanu scheme would give more light, more water and save expenses as well.

Senator Dickey said that electric lights were needed in Honolulu, but that a $75 000 reservoir is sufficient for that purpose

MR. WRIGHT

(From Wednesday's dolly.)

Representative Wright of the Second District of Kona. Hawaii, came near being punished for contempt of court by Judge Wilcox yesterday forencon. The representative appeared as the attorney for his brother-in-law, Adam. Duncan, the police officer, who was placed under arrest on Saturday evening for using profane language and calling attaches vile names at the station while in uniform. On Monday, Speaker Beckley punished the legislator for being absent. Yesterday Judge Wilcox had just a wee doubt in his mind as to how far legislators, while attending legislative sessions, were amenable to the law. Had he known in court what he learned later on, the representative would surely have been

The prosecution put on the stand Joe Storer, the Porto Rican boy who has been assisting the Deputy Sheriff in running to earth several of the worst Porto Rican and negro criminals in town. Joe testified that while he was sitting in a carriage hired by the before the Police Station Duncan came along and called him several vile When the testimony was all in, Wright arose and asked the Judgeto dismiss the defendant, alleging that the prosecution had failed to prove following remark which electrified the court and the spectators: "That boy is Anybody can teil a black that by looking into his face." The Deputy Sheriff arose at once and demanded that such language be withlrawn. He charged Wright with lacking a sense of honor, especially as he was a man engaged in framing laws for the country. He requested the judge to commit him for contempt of court. Then Judge Wilcox turned loose on Wright and gave him a tongue-lash-"I wish to tell you that you can not use that kind of language in this court," said he angrily, "and if you ever do it again I will take summary action with you." Wright endeavored to frame an excuse but got no hearing. His-client was then adjudged guilty and fined $10 and costs.

It is common report that many of the while for any offense they may comm the legislature is in session. One legislator went so far as to say recently that he could knock a man down and he couldn't be arrested for it.

JAP LABORERS WHO FOUND HARD LUCK

The fifty Japanese laborers who left here sometime ago, ostensibly for an Alaskan cannery, were at last report still in San Francisco. That they are having a deal of trouble with the labor agents can be adduced from the following item appearing in one of the Japanese newspapers published in San Francisco:

"Laborers for Alaska are in a great trouble. The laborers recruited and brought from the Hawaiian Islands by T. Oishi, are in a quandary. Ever since their arrival here, they are meeting a heap of troubles, and a recent difficulty with the labor agent has culminated with the arrest of one of the crowd which occurred at Jessie St. on March

The report is a good dose of medicine for some of those foolish laborers who simply want to emigrate to the mainland without any apparent reason whatever for doing so.—Hawaii Shinpo.

HOW THE MOSQUITO CAME TO INFEST THEES ISLANDS

afflicting the people of these islands. Everybody does not know, perhaps, that the mosquito is an imported pest. It has been here so long, and has made itself so much at home, that it is supposed to be here by prescriptive right, much the same as any other nativeand, possibly, that is the reason why no systematic effort has ever been made to get rid of it. People have hesitated to attack so old a settleralmost an aborigine, in fact. Of course there are instances of individual warfare upon it. The story of the coming of the mosquito is thus told by D. L. Van Dine. Health that another physician to con- entomologist at the local U. S. Experiment Station:

It is easy to understand that at that early time the ships coming here were few and far between. All evidence pointed to the ship 'Wellington' as the carrier of the pest. This story was later corroborated by Mr. Henry A. Pierce, late U. S. Minister to Hawaii in the seventies. Furthermore, up to the year 1826 there was no word in the Hawaiian language for mosquito. The native name for mosquito is makika, a corruption of the name mosquito. "The one introduced was the common night' mosquito or Culex. The 'day' mosquito (Stegomyia) was introduced during the present generation. THE BRIGHT SIDE OF LIFE. It is a feeling common to the majority of us that we do not get quite the amount of happiness we are entitled to. Among the countless things which tend to make us more or less mis-erable ill health takes first place. Hannah More said that sin was generally to be attributed to biliousness. No doubt a crippled liver with the resulting impure blood, is the cause of more mental gloom than any other single thing. A chronic dyspeptic, says an eminent English physician, is always on the verge of a mental upset. And who can reckon up the fearful aggregate of pain, loss and fear arising from the many ailments and diseases which are familiar to mankind. Like a vast cloud it hangs over a multitude no one can number. You can see these people every-where. For them life can scarcely be said to have any "bright side" at all. Hence the eagerness with which they search for relief and cure. Remedies like WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION have not attained their high position in the confidence of the people by bald assertions and boasting advertisements. They are obliged to win it by doing actually what is claimed for them. That this remedy deserves its reputation is conceded. It is palstable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, Ex-tracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. Nothing has such a record of success in Anemia, Nerrous Debility, Scrofula, Throat and Lung Troubles, and all emaciating complaints and disorders. It's use helps to show life's brighter side. Dr. W. H. B. Aikins, of Canada, says: "I am pleased to state that the results from using it have been uniformly satisfac-Queen's Hortory." Every dose affective. "It

Mr. John Hafner, of Wagga Wagga, New South Wales. Read carefully what he says: "I have roughed it a great deal, mining, working in storms, exposed to the heat, and have often had poor food. My blood frequently becomes impure and I have erroptions, boils, and become generally run down. But Ayer's Eurasparilla takes hold of me every time, makes my blood pure and builds me right un."

SENATE APPROVES PAUDA AND PAHOA WATER SCHEMES

The bill defining procurers and disorderly houses and fixing penalties was passed without a dissenting vote.

STANDARD TELEPHONE BILL. On motion of Long the Standard relephone bill was taken from the table and was put on its final passage. Kumelae moved to amend by inserting a new paragraph providing for the making of an annual statement to the Territory of all business done, and the payment to the Territory of 21/4 per cent of the gross receipts each year. He advocated the adoption of the amendment at length.

Kanino moved to indefinitely postpone the consideration of the bill. He argued that the company was given the right of eminent domain for right of way, which was injustice. He talked at length of the damage that might be done to property by the Company running its line through orchards, graveyards and residence lots. He urged the members to stop confiscation.

Pulsa moved that sections 9, 10 and II be stricken from the bill, those sections defining the powers of the company to protect its property, to enter upon the property of others and to construct its lines of wires. The report was read, showing the committee had changed section 9 so that no trees or shrubs could be trimmed or cut without the consent of the property owner, and that damages should be adjusted by arbitration.

Vida moved an amendment to Kumalae's motion, providing that the payment of 21/2 per cent shall not commence until after five years shall have

FOR SPECIAL COMMITTEE.

Paele moved to refer the bill to a special committee, and Kumalae, after seconding it, went into a long argument opposing the eminent domain features and likewise the provision that the company might ever combine with another, which he said would be a trust and that would be contrary to Republi-

Fernandez argued for the bill, telling how fine was the service, extolling the secrecy feature, and denouncing the present central system.

Kalama said he was opposed to allow ing the Standard Company to reach Maul, as they have a good company there. He said the Standard Company would simply freeze out all other companies. He therefore moved as an amendment the striking out of all reference to the other islands, leaving the franchise annileable only to Oahn

BECKLEY MAKES FIGHT. Speaker Beckley took the floor to say that he was opposed to section 14 of the bill. Under that section, he said, the corporation could purchase the stock of other corporations or sell to other companies. He said the Rapid Transit had this privilege and bought amount. $250 Tramway shares. Today there are no mule cars on King street. He said be believed in competition, as there might be better service for the people. He said he was opposed to any privilege to Honolulu people to go over and tricts. compete with Maul's company, as that was a purely home company. The privilege in section 14 might be so used that a few shares in outside companies might be bought and endless litigation result for the purpose of wrecking the companies. He said also there might be a trust in telephones, when "Lord help the people." Kupihes tried to take Backley off his feet with a previous question motion, but he was not recogm falling bricks or timbers as well nized. Beckley said the Oahu county members should ask the privilege for their county alone. He then moved to strike out section 14, as against trusts, Andrade saying he would accept the it. All Dealers and Druggists sell change. Unanimously the elimination was made ...

BILL IS TABLED.

The question then came up on the recommittal to a special committee, but this was lost on a tie vote, the Speaker so deciding.

Kalama's amendment, confining the company to Oahu, was next taken up and the amendment was carried by a large majority.

Kumalae's amendment, for the payment of 2% per cent of the gross receipts to the government, was then objected to the aspersions cast upon carried, the vote being 12 to 13, and the Speaker deciding in favor of the payment. The Vida amendment, granting five years exemption, was then adopted.

Andrade made a fight against the percentage, trying to have it made "net" receipts at the least, but the House would not have it so, and Andrade, in desperation, moved to table the bill, and the House gleefully as-communicated to the Senate.

A resolution was received from the Merchants' Association urging the passage of the Standard Telephone Company franchise. Laid on the table to be considered with the bill,

On motion of Senator Isenberg a recess was taken to allow the clerk to take the county bill to the Governor. This was finally extended until 1:30

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Committee on Health reported favorably the bill to regulate the practice of pharmacy, saying that it was necessary "as a protection against the indiscriminate sale of poisonous drugs by irresponsible people." MISCELLANEOUS REPORTS.

Senator Dickey, for the Miscellaneous Committee, reported favorably the bill making a general law on appropriations, so that a prohibitive section need not be added at each session. The same committee reported favorably the amendment to the medical law, recommending its passage with an amendment making the penalty $100 instead of $250.

The same committee also recommended the passage of the bill to enforce the lien of shipping companies. The bill authorizes the sale of goods not called for. The committee makes an amendment extending the time for held from thirty to ninety days.

The Public Lands Committee reported favorably the resolution providing payment to C. B. Dwight for the Thomas Square sidewalk. Adopted.

TO MEET THE VETO.

Senator Dickeý introduced a new bill for the incorporation of Societies for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, which covered the objections made in Governor Dole's veto. It passed first reading and will be read a second time

Senator Paris, for the Ways and Means Committee, recommended the passage of Senate Bill 167, relating to foreign corporations. The committee makes one amendment, fixing the minimum license fee at $150. The bill the report. The bill was framed to erament the right to condemn? meet the alleged unconstitutionality of the present law.

PAHOA WATER WORKS.

Senator Isenberg, for the Special Water Committee, reported favorably the Pahoa water works. The committee finds some of the pipes perfect. but the reservoir is valueless. The cost of the water is $11.26 per million gallons. The committee estimates the value of the property at $76,450, and proposes an amendment changing the figure of $100,000 in the bill to that

Senator Brown moved the adoption of the report, saying that Superintendent Brown told him that this water works would supply the entire Waikiki, Moililli and Diamond Head dis-

PRICE IS TOO HIGH.

Senator McCandless opposed the railroading of the bill through. He said Brown-"There isn't enough water in the purchase would cost the Territory $1,500 more in interest than the water rates now being received. The Kalihi plant, he said, would supply the districts if a reservoir was built. The valuation of the committee, he said, also, was too much. Three years ago an expert had fixed the value at $65,000, and it hadn't appreciated since. He objected also to the Territory taking s load off some one's shoulders because he was losing money. He argued against all propositions of this kind, the Territory buying private rights.

NO MONEY, SAYS ACHI.

Senator Achi also opposed the bill, saying that the Senate had already more than filled the loan bill and couldn't put in the $76,400. He favored the City of Honolulu taking the water works, but not the whole country paying for it.

ISENBERG RESENTS.

Senator Isenberg replied botly to the remarks of Senator McCandless. He the committee and the expert. He said engineering expert in the country to investigate, better than Mr. McCandless, even. He said the expert might charge $100 for his services, and if the chase of the Paboa water plant. He committee didn't pay it, he himself said that the $150,000 would cost $7,500 would, "And now he doubts what we in interest, which would more than have done," continued Isenberg, and outweigh the saving on the Beretania says that we haven't done our duty, street pumping station. He figured and that the expert didn't know what that the cost of the Pauca springs he is talking about. Brown, Dickey, Brown and Kniue, What is the matter with Senator Mc-Candiess any way? He bucks every thing in this Benate."

McCANDLESS REPLIES

McCandless replied that he had made no charge against the committee or expert; except to say that the water works had been experted three years ago and a lower valuation fixed. Senator C. Brown interrupted to say that he had made insinuations,

"I am here for the best interest of the people at large," said McCandless. "I am not here for personal things, and I have not traded one vote with Senators for bills, and every bill I introduce must stand on its own merits. It is my privilege to talk for or against any bill: I may err in my judgment, but Senator Isenberg has no right to make such an attack upon me, or accuse me of bucking every bill."

"Except the Winston bill," interposed Isenberg.

"I asked that it be laid on the table," replied McCandless, "and didn't want it brought up again. I cast no reflection on the committee."

"Yes, you did," said Isenberg. "In my judgment," said McCandless, they want too much money, and it is my prerogative to say whether I shall vote for $76,000 or $50,000, and if you give $50,000 you pay all its worth, and more, too."

Senator J. T. Brown moved the previous question, which carried, and the report was adopted, 9 to 2, Achi and McCandless voting no. The bill will be read a third time today.

THE PAUCA WATER BILL

The next water scheme was then taken up, House Bill No. 157, providing for acquisition of the Pauca springs. Senator Isenberg moved that the bill

Senator C. Brown seconded the motion, and said that the time had come which non-perishable goods must be when the government should control all the water from Palolo vailey to Kalihi valley as it was now deriving an immense profit from its water. He argued also that pumping cost $12.80 per million gallons and the gravitation system but $2.74 per million, and alb the pumping plants should be abandoned. The purchase of the springs would effect a considerable saving every day. He said that Senator Baldwin had told him he believed there was two million gallons of water at Pauca instead of one million gallons. Though the first expenditure was large, he thought the saving in the end would be much greater.

PARIS ASKS QUESTIONS.

Senator Paris asked why the committee had recommended purchase of passed second reading on adoption of both water springs. Hasn't the gov-

"Yes," said Senator Brown, "Why force the government to do it in this way then today?" he asked, "The price put on it is less than it ever will be, or than a jury would fix. If it was mine I wouldn't take less than $250,000, and I'd build my own water

Paris-"Both the Superintendent of Public Works and the Superintendent of the Water Works favor the Nuuanu proposition." Brown-"I'll tell you the reason; they want pumping plants, where there are billets for employes, politics is in it. Nuuanu valley is not the watershed. Paris-"We should be guided somewhat by the government officials." Brown-"It will cost $150,000 for the Nuuanu reservoir, and it will be a stink-pot still, and also the worst breeder of illness imaginable." Paris—"A filtration plant is to be one-third full."

NO MONEY FOR COUNTIES.

Senator Achi opposed the bill because the government didn't have the money. He figured out that when the county bill goes into effect there will be but $800,000 in the Treasury, while the bill appropriates $720,000 for the counties. If these springs are bought there will be but $400,000 left for the counties. Senator Brown replied that Oahu would need only $300,000 for the first three months, and after that the income from waterworks, etc., would pay all expenses.

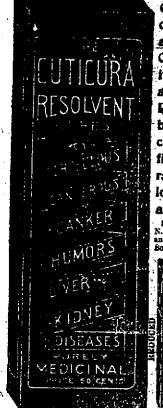

NOT A GOOD TITLE,

Senator Paris said that the parties selling the water didn't have a good. lawsuifs. He contended that the proper method was to let the government condemn the springs.

COMMITTEE IS CONTRADICTORY. Senator McCandless moved to postpone consideration indefinitely. He said the committee had reported in favor of both water schemes, and here they were arguing against pumping plants, and yet recommending the purnothing: just look at the intelligent | Rapena falls, which had been rendered two billion gallons. The question of paahu, Wilcox, Woods, Crabbe-House bills passed on Thursday were men on that sommittee, Senstors useless on that account. He somended more electric lights should also be con-

At this point the Chairman called attention to the fact that for the first time a Senator had exceeded the limit of time in argument, but upon motion McCandless was allowed five minutes longer. He said also that the using of this water by the government would make useless some ninety acres of tare land which, under present conditons of the tare supply, should not be permitted. It was on i the shores of the big island that the close call came to the purser and the captain.

The sea began to get rough while the ship was lying at Papaaloa, and presently, before the landing wire could be unshipped, it parted and the big hook came down with a run, while the freed ends of wire went into the sea. It was secured later, however, and so little damage was done. Then the Maul made a run for Laupahoehoe, and it was while coming ashore in the boat here that the purser and the captain had their close call. At this landing there is a tortuous channel, filled with rocks, and just as the boat came out of this channel she was caught by a cold as February which was the coldest big sea and turned over so quickly that month on the record 25 years and low but one of the native boatmen of the crew had a chance to jump clear.
